

Avocado Packhouse Worker

Southern Paprika Limited (SPL) is a leading New Zealand capsicum grower located in Warkworth and we currently operate 27 hectares of glasshouse with plans for expansion. We are excited to announce that we are starting up a brand-new Avocado Packhouse that will be supplying both domestic and export avocados with expected start in mid-June. We are looking for positions in all aspects of the Avocado Packhouse with immediate start possible in the capsicum glasshouse or packhouse.

We require motivated team players to assist the Packhouse Management team with a focus on quality, food safety, efficiency, and teamwork.

There are various positions available, including:

- Fruit Grading
- Fruit Packing
- Fruit Bagging
- Carton Erecting

Requirements:

- Flexibility with hours is critical to deal with our seasonal demands. This is a full-time role possibly requiring some evening and weekend work.
- You must be keen to learn, a practical thinker and show initiative.
- These are physical and busy roles. You will need a reasonable level of fitness and be able to work well under pressure.
- You must be able to work well in a team environment.
- A good attention to detail is essential.

Qualifications:

- No Formal qualifications are required; however, any relevant Horticulture qualification would be advantageous.

Experience:

- Any relevant practical experience grading fruit, packing fruit or any specific experience with the horticulture industry or packhouse environment will be looked upon favourably.

This is an opportunity to take on a role in a growing company where hard work and enthusiasm will be well rewarded.

If you think you could be a good fit for any of the above positions, apply now. Please send a covering letter explaining why you think you would suit this role and your CV to niki@spl.nz or call 021 02783146.
